SHORT BIOGRAPHY

The London-born tenor began his artistic career as an actor on stages across the United Kingdom, where he appeared in award-winning Off-West End productions. After relocating to Austria, he commenced his vocal studies at the University of Music and Performing Arts Vienna (MDW), graduating with distinction in 2022, before completing his Master Degree in Vocal Performance immediately after.
Shortly thereafter, he was engaged as a soloist in numerous prestigious projects, including performances at Grafenegg, St Pölten Festspielhaus, Oper Burg Gars and the Kammeroper of Theater an der Wien.

As of the 2026/27 season, George has been an ensemble member of the Landestheater Niederbayern. Upcoming roles include Basilio/Don Curzio in Le Nozze di Figaro and Dr. Cajus in Falstaff. The production of Fantasio, in which he sang Marinoni, won the coveted Operettenfrosch award by BR Klassik.

He has performed under the baton of Sir Simon Rattle, Giancarlo Rizzi, Daniel Linton-France, Christoph Meier, Jakob Lehmann among others, and receives mentorship and regularly works with Sir Simon Keenlyside, KS Angelika Kirchschlager and Ramon Vargas.
